We've Lowered the Prices in Order to Raise Our High-Water Mark on

Muslin Underwear

The tremendous response we've gotten to our unequalled offers impels us to greater and greater efforts in value giving. While we have always made it a point to undersell competitors, our present prices are very nuch lower than equal grades can be had for elsewhere. And it is in quality that we especially excel. Our Underwear is all cut generously full—not a suggestion of skimpiness about any garment here—and the finish is unusually good. That means a whole lot when such prices as these are quoted:
